Tennis in the Morning and the Annual Ball Game in the Afternoon Today-Several Changes in Baseball Team's Lineup-Brickley and Lord the Battery.

The Connecticut Aggies and the Academy will clash today in their annual baseball game. This year one more sport has been added to the programme. In the morning the tennis teams of the schools will play a match on the Norwich roque grounds. During the last two weeks the tennis team has been carefully coached and is expected to make a good showing. This is the first team, of this sort at the Academy for a long time.

The matches will consist of two doubles and four singles. In the doubles Stockwell and Mr. Overbagh will make up the first paid, and A. Collins and Wulf the second. In the singles Stockwell, Slocum, L'Heureux and Overbagh will represent the Academy.

The baseball game in the afternoon will be a great trial for the locals.

DECLINE IN STOCKS, Foreign Markets Nervous Over the Mexican Situation.

ing was largely responsible for a gen-eral decline in stocks today. Foreign markets were nervous over the Mexi-can crisis, and the depression due to est price at which it has sold since it became a ten per cent stock. Its present price is nearly 100 points under the high record made in 1912. New Haven also developed pronounced weakness, as did some of the other stocks, such as Mexican Petroleum, Smelting and Southern Pacific which are particularly affected by the Mexican trouble.

Bonds were lower, with active selling of some high grade issues. Total sales, par value, $2,290,000. Government bonds were again de-pressed, with most pronounced heav-iness in Panama 3's. This issue, which ost a point, was especially sensitive owing to the expectation that, if the government should float a war loan
